

CONVENTION SPECIAL NAEB NEWSLETTER

Office of Executive Secretary
Urbana, Illinois
August 15, 1940

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

The 1940 annual convention of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters will be held September 6 and 7 in the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, Illinois. Make your plans to be there and to bring as many members of your staff as possible.

This promises to be one of those slam-banging, rip-roaring, blitzkrieging conventions for which NAEB is noted. Tentative plans for the program have been set up which call for your cooperation. Do your part by coming prepared in might and wisdom.

Maury Novik from New York City plans to be there . . . Reid White from Pullman, Washington plans to be there . . . Luke Roberts from Corvallis, Oregon plans to be there . . . President Harold Inghams plans to be there . . . WOI Griffith is warming up the thumb for his hitch-hike . . . Carl Menzer may fly in . . . Mac McCarty can't miss . . . Maybe Harold Engel will get back from his fishing in Wyoming to attend . . . Howard Evans has been invited . . . M. C. Jensen will be on hand . . . EVERYONE SHOULD BE THERE . . . start early if your pocketbook is low, your tires in poor shape.

See the tentative program attached . . . Note especially the places set aside for member participation . . . There will be luncheons together both days, but no speakers . . . no banquet on Friday night . . . Everything has been planned for your convenience . . . Do your part to make this a SUCCESS.
